

Amendment to LCB File No. R037-13

Proposed Regulation of the State Environmental Commission

Division of Environmental Protection

August 23, 2013

(Amended language is highlighted in blue)

Section 1, subsection 2 of the proposed regulation is amended to read as follows:

2. The Division shall, on or before March 1 of each year, charge and collect the following annual permit fees:

For a permit issued to a class I site receiving, based on an annual average, more than 100 tons per day but less than 500 tons per day, excluding class I sites which have received a waiver of the liner and groundwater monitoring requirements prescribed by this chapter.....$5,000

For a permit issued to a class I site receiving, based on an annual average, 500 tons or more per day.....$65,000

For a permit issued to a class III site receiving, based on an annual average, more than 20 tons per day but less than 500 tons per day.....$10,000

For a permit issued to a class III site receiving, based on an annual average, 500 tons or more per day..... $50,000

*For a permit issued to a class III site primarily receiving by-products from the combustion of coal and receiving, based on an annual average, more than 100 tons per day.....$20,000

For a permit issued to a class III site primarily receiving by-products from the combustion of coal and receiving, based on an annual average, more than 50 tons per day but less than 100 tons per day.....$10,000

For a permit issued to a class III site primarily receiving by-products from the combustion of coal and receiving, based on an annual average, less than 50 tons per day.....$5,000